HONEY BEE HEALTH INFORMATION FORM

Honey bee health is a critical issue today. The New York state Department of Agriculture and Markets goal is to assist beekeepers in maintaining their colonies in a healthy condition. In order for the Department to keep you aware of bee health issues, please provide the following information. This enables the Department to keep a complete list of all beekeepers and allows the Department to contact beekeepers when bee health issues arise.

Thank you for taking the time and effort to complete this form. If you have questions or require assistance please use the following numbers or email to contact the Albany office.

1-800-554-4501 or 1-518-457-2087.
