Is your produce intended to be used in commercial processing? (i.e. canning, distilling, baking or some other kill step)

- Yes, all of the produce that I sell will undergo some type of commercial processing that includes a "kill step".
- Yes, some of the produce that I sell will undergo some type of commercial processing that includes a "kill step".
- No, none of the produce that I sell will undergo some type of commercial processing that includes a "kill step".

FARM SIZE

Please indicate Farm Size based on TOTAL produce sales averaged over 3 years:

- Large Farm (over $500K in total produce sales)
- Small Farm (over $250K but less than $500K in total produce sales)
- Very Small Farm (over $25K but less than $250K in total produce sales)
- Exempt Farm (less than 25K in total produce sales)

Is your farm's annual FOOD* sales more than $500,000 averaged over 3 years?

- No
 Yes

*Food has the meaning given in section 201(f) of the act (21 U.S.C. 321(f)). Examples of food include, but are not limited to, fruits, vegetables, fish, dairy products, eggs, raw agricultural commodities for use as food or components of food, animal feed, including pet food, food and feed ingredients and additives, including substances that migrate into food from food packaging and other articles that contact food, dietary supplements and dietary ingredients, infant formula, beverages, including alcoholic beverages and bottled water, live food animals, bakery goods, snack foods, candy, and canned foods.

If you answered "No", please proceed to the next question.

Is the majority of the FOOD (human food + animal food) sales to a qualified end user*?

- Yes
 No

*A qualified end user is defined as

- The consumer of the food OR
- A restaurant or retail food establishment that is located
  - In the same state or the same Indian reservation as the farm that produced the food OR
  - Not more than 275 miles from such farm
("consumer" does not include a business)

Selling products at a farmers market in the same state or within 275 miles of your farm would be considered selling to a qualified end user.

I have successfully completed a Produce Safety Alliance (PSA) Grower Training OR Train-the-Trainer course.
