An agriculturally literate person understands and can communicate the source and value of agriculture as it relates to our daily lives.
New York Agriculture in the Classroom

- We believe in real.
- We invest in teachers.
Cornell Cooperative Extension AITC

You will find CCE AITC educators

- In the classroom.
- In the community.
Program Actions

Action 1: Support CCE staff & materials
Action 2: Virtual Field Trips
Action 3: Teaching Lessons & Kits
Action 4: Innovation Contest
Action 5: Professional Development
CCE Pilot Partners

- Broome
- Madison
- Monroe
- Nassau
- New York
- St. Lawrence
- Wyoming
- Albany (Schenectady)
- Erie
- Genesee
- Herkimer (Hamilton & Montgomery)
- Livingston
- Oneida
- Seneca
Highlights

24,224 Students Impacted
  ○ 100,000 goal

34,503 Hours of Dairy Instruction
  ○ 2-5 sessions

567 Classrooms Impacted
  ○ 500 goal
Dairy in the Classroom
Dairy in the Classroom
Dairy in the Classroom
Dairy in the Classroom
Dairy in the Classroom
Dairy in the Classroom
Dairy in the Classroom
Professional Development
Branding

New York Agriculture in the Classroom

Dairy in the Classroom
Upcoming Experiences

4 Professional Developments
Dairy Innovation Challenge
Fall VFT Series
Classroom Engagement
Questions?