An inspection of your establishment was made today pursuant to provisions of the New York State Agriculture and Markets Law relating to food.

The Establishment is in substantial compliance in that no critical deficiencies were observed.

A critical deficiency is a sanitation or food safety condition that must be corrected immediately. It may result in the assessment of civil penalties and other action provided by law, including administrative hearing or court action.

Article 28 of the NYS Agriculture and Markets Law requires a retail food store to post a copy of the date and results of its most recent sanitary inspection in a conspicuous location near each public entrance. A retail food store may comply with this requirement by posting a copy of this Notice of Inspection.

If you offer to give any benefit, thing or money or harass any employee of the Dept. of Agriculture and Markets, your conduct will be reported to your local police or sheriff's department.
